PALE, WEAK PEOPLE

MADE STRONG AND ENERGETIC

BY DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS.

General Breakdown Caused by Deficient

Blood Quickly Corrected by

This Tonic Remedy.

A feeling of general weakness, poor appetite, loss of breath after the slightest exercise and broken sleep are some of the symptoms of general debility. You may think that they have no relation to each other and that you will worry along, hoping all the time to feel better soon. This is a mistake, for every one of the symptoms is caused by bad blood, which must be made pure and new before health will be restored again. A tonic treatment is necessary and for this purpose there is no better remedy than Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Mr. J. G. Haver, of 95 Willow St., Chelsea, Mass., says: "I was sick for a number of years from general debility and indigestion. I was never free from stomachic trouble and my nerves were so shattered that the least excitement unfitted me for any serious work. My sleep was restless on account of terrible pains in the small of my back. These pains would sometimes last for a month or two. My sight grew weak, there coming to be a blur constantly before my eyes. I couldn't concentrate my mind on my work, and the attempt to do so completely exhausted me."

"I was finally forced to give up a position I had held for twenty-eight years. After trying several medicines without help, I read of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and gave them a trial. They made me feel so much better and so much stronger that I started in business for myself here in Chelsea. I have never had a return of my former sickness and cheerfully recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as an excellent nerve and blood tonic."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have long been recognized as an excellent tonic remedy in cases of indigestion and general debility, where the stomach and other organs of the body are weakened and disordered, simply through lack of nourishment. They have also been especially successful in curing anemia, rheumatism, after-effects of the grip and fevers.

A pamphlet on "Diseases of the Blood," and a copy of our diet book will be sent free on request to anyone interested.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50, by Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

graduating class of Leland and Gray

Seminary, Townshend, June 2.

Winder's summer colony is beginning to gather. A recent arrival is Mrs. A. H.

Nichols of Boston, a sister of St. Gaudens, the sculptor, who has a beautiful residence in Windsor.

The maple sugar market at Randolph has received an order from the State where they claim to make the "just as good Vermont" kind for twenty tons of maple sugar and 3,000 gallons of syrup. The season in Ohio was not as good as usual.

The North Adams & Bennington railway will be mortgaged to the amount of $40,000 under condition that the mortgage and bonds of the Remington & Hoosier Valley Railroad company be cancelled. The new road is still expected to be open to traffic June 1.

More Troops for Fort Ethan Allen.

Orders have been issued for more troops to come to Fort Ethan Allen and one squadron, four troops of the 11th cavalry, now at Fort Des Moines, Ia., will proceed at once by rail to come to that reservation for station. The 11th cavalry was stationed at Fort Ethan Allen in 1900 and 1901, leaving in December of that year for the Philippines and returning to the United States about a year ago. The troops to come to the fort will be A, B, C and D, about 240 men. The garrison will then consist of troops E, F, G and H, 15th cavalry.

There are quarters enough at Fort Ethan Allen for the entire regiment of the 11th cavalry and for the squadron of the 15th cavalry, now here. In Washington the move to fill Fort Ethan Allen with cavalry is daily expected. With a full complement of cavalry and an extra squadron the post would have a steady troop of cavalry of 65 men to a troop or over 1,000 men, with nearly 75 commissioned officers.

A Strange Will.

Several years ago Charles Lounsbury, a Chicago lawyer, who at one time ranked high in his profession, died an insane patient at the Cook County asylum at Downing. Although this man died absolutely destitute and penniless, he left the following "will":

"I, Charles Lounsbury, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do hereby make and publish this, my last will and testament, in order, as justly as may be, to distribute my interest in the world among succeeding men.

"Item: I leave to children, inclusive-ly, but only for the term of their childhood, all and every the flowers of the fields and the blossoms of the woods, with the right to play among them freely according to the customs of children, warning them at the same time against thieft and thorns. And I devise to the golden banks of the brooks and the golden streams, beneath the waters thereof, and the odors of the willows that dip therein, and the white clouds that float high over the giant trees.

"And I leave to children the long, long days to be merry in, in a thousand ways, and the night, and moon, and train of the Milky way to wonder at, but subject, nevertheless, to the rights hereinafter given to lovers.

"Item: I devise to boys jointly all the useful life fields and commons, where ball may be played; all pleasant waters where one may swim; all snow-capped hills where one may coast; and all streams and ponds where one may fish, or where, when grim winter comes one may skate, to have and to hold these same for the period of their boyhood. And all meadows with the clover blossoms and butterflies thereof; the woods and their appertene-nces; the squirrels and the birds and echoes and strange noises; and all distant places which may be visited, together with the adventures there found.

"Item: To lovers I devise their imaginary world, with whatever they may need, as the stars of the sky, the red roses by the wall, the bloom of the hawthorn, the sweet strains of music and sought else they may desire to figure to each other the lastness and beauty of their love.

"Item: To young men, jointly, I devise and bequeath all boisterous, inspiring sports of rivalry, and I give to them the disdain of weakness and undaunted confidence in their own strength. Though they are rude, I leave to them the power to make lasting friendships and of possessing companions, and to them exclusively I give all merry songs and grave chorens to sing with just notes.

"Item: To our loved ones with snowy crowns I bequeath the happiness of old age, the love and gratitude of their children until they fall asleep."—Denver
